Iona Brown Award

- Scott describes the qualities that the Iona Brown Award recognizes
- Deadline for submission due to president@mcsl.org is Saturday, July 22

- The Iona Brown Award is presented at halftime of the All-Star Individual meet
- Everyone who submits a nomination will receive a communication from the Board

All-Star Planning/Scratches

- Marty mentions the successful CLC meet — and continued issues with the Rockville scoreboard
- Marty covers All-Star Relays Section I and Section II timing, should be about a 90-minute meet
- We need volunteers and Marty will be emailing the volunteer coordinators
- Particularly with All-Star Relays, all Divisions need to provide volunteers
- Officials should reach out to competition@mcsl.org
- Timers and take-off judges need to do the whole meet for both All-Star Individuals and Relays

Automation/Web Site

- Bob will soon post preliminary Relay rankings
- Relay scratches should be sent to automation@mcsl.org
- Swim-ups are not allowed in All-Star Relays
- Same scratch policy with Individuals as with Coaches Long Course
- Scratch page for Individual All-Stars will close on Monday, July 24 at 9:00pm
- Please scratch swimmers who won't attend up to the 30s in the rankings
- Preliminary seedings for All-Star Individuals likely will be posted Tuesday, July 25

Awards

- Liz has ribbons for four teams
- Long Course medals are here for Poolesville and Plantations

Records

- Kathy reminds Team Reps about how to process an MCSL record (need signatures of timers)
- Kathy recognizes Scott Witkin's five years as President

Around the Horn

- Marty mentions that MCSL needs parent volunteers with construction/architect experience. If so, reach out to competition@mcsl.org
- Deadline for Team Reps submitting rule changes proposals is Nov. 1, submit to rules@mcsl.org
